

Occupational Safety and Health Regulations for Public Sector Workplaces

Maine has an Occupational Safety and Health Law that protects state, county and municipal government employees from workplace safety and health hazards.

M.R.S.A. Title 26: Labor and Industry

Public sector employers must place this poster in the workplace where workers can easily see it.

This poster is provided at no cost by the Maine Department of Labor and may be copied.

How are you protected?

- ✓ By law, an employer must provide a safe and healthful workplace for employees.
- ✓ Periodically, safety and health inspectors from the Maine Department of Labor will show up at your workplace to make sure your employer is following Safety and Health Regulations.
- ✓ You have a right to report work-related injuries and illnesses.
- ✓ If you think your workplace is unsafe, you or your representative can contact the Maine Department of Labor and request an inspection. You can request that your name be kept confidential.
- ✓ Employers, employees and employee representatives may go with the inspector on the inspection of your job site.
- ✓ Your employer may be cited and penalized if unsafe or unhealthful conditions are found during an inspection. Citations must be posted at or near the place of the alleged violation.
- ✓ Your employer must correct unsafe and unhealthful conditions found during an inspection.
- ✓ Employers that repeat safety and health violations or that violate the law on purpose may face fines, civil charges, or criminal charges.
- ✓ You cannot be fired or discriminated against for filing a safety and health complaint or reporting a work-related injury or illness. You can file a complaint with the Director of the Bureau of Labor Standards within 30 days of such an alleged violation.

Under a plan approved August 5, 2015, by the U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the State of Maine is providing job safety and health protection for workers in the public sector throughout the State.

OSHA will monitor the operation of this plan to assure that continued approval is merited. Any person may make a complaint regarding the State administration of this plan directly to the Regional Office of OSHA, JFK Federal Building, Room E-340, Boston, Massachusetts 02203.
